Coroner's Imquest.

A May Found Dand in a Lor—Dears the Result of A Fall.—Shortly before eleven o'clock on Friday night Captain Hedden, of the Sixteenth precinct, received information that there was a man lying deed in the vacant lot adjoining 306 West Fourteenth street, that being the residence of Mr. David Samson. The Captain immediately proceeded to the place, and found the body, which proved to be that of Mr. Samson himself. Life was quite critical, but the body was not cold. The remains were conveyed into the house, when it appeared that deceased had been missed from his room on the second floor but a short time previously, and appearances indicated that Mr. Samson had fallen from a window down into the lot, and thus received fatal injuries. Coroner Collin yesterday held an inquest on the body, and amongst the witnessess sworn was Mr. Forchheimer, whose testimony is as follows:—David Forchheimer, being duly sworn, deposes and says—I reside at 213 West Iwenty-fifth street; I am sonin-law of deceased; deceased has been suffering from the case of the heart and vertice since his wife ded, about a year since; the loss of his wife seemed to proy a great deal on his mind; has been is hed since Wednessay; could not lands on the mind; has been is hed since Wednessay; could not lands and lot me that deceased was manner; we looked through the house for his; we went too they yard and looked over the fence into the adjoining lot and looked over the fence into the adjoining lot and looked over the fence into the adjoining lot and found are monthly lying there; his son went over and saw him there; I then went into the part of the control over and saw him there; he was then dead.

First around and the property of the property of the pools and chattels in compliance with the order of the goods and chattels in compliance with the order of execution. Marken Menager swears that the effects taken by the Sheriff were not the property of M. Firmin Menager, and that the action brought is precover them was got up by collusion between Allan and the said Firmin Menager for the purpose of defraudign her out of her just rights and property. The answer to this charge is substantially a general denial of the alleged fraudulent proceedings.

For the plaintiff, Markinse Menager, Mesers, John B. Pogarty and C. L. Spilithorus appeared, and for the defendants Mr. Bryan. A long argument took place, after which Judge Jones took the papers and reserved his decision.
